PROPRIETORS

The ShowRoom Cinema proprietors - Nancy Sabino and Michael Sodano - built their careers in creative communications for corporate productions and are long time film industry veterans. In 2009, their combined creative business experience allowed Nancy and Mike to see beyond an empty store front on Cookman Avenue, and it was this vision that led to the founding of The ShowRoom Cinema, Asbury Park's first movie theater in over 30 years.

As the demand for quality film and independent film fans increased, a vacant building across the street presented the opportunity for The ShowRoom Cinema's necessary expansion. In 2012, the new three screen, two story space, located at 707 Cookman Avenue opened its doors.
